

London Children's Museum

New Members - Board of Directors

Time Commitment: Minimum 2 years

Deadline to Apply: March 10, 2023

Position Description

London Children's Museum is seeking skilled, community-minded individuals to join our Board of Directors. The ideal candidate has leadership or governance experience and is eager to contribute to this organization's growth. As a member of the Board your experience and expertise will provide strategic leadership to the London Children's Museum during a transitional phase.

The London Children's Museum works to ensure equitable access to play. A diverse leadership team is required to cultivate an inclusive and accessible space that serves all children and families. As such, priority will be given to expanding Board diversity in the areas of age, gender expression, ethnicity, race, ability, lived experience, and valuable perspectives not listed here.

The required commitments for the Director position are as follows:

- The ability to serve for a minimum 2-year term
- Attend monthly board meetings
- Serve on one or more sub-committees of the Board
- Embrace the mission, vision, and values of the London Children's Museum
- Represent and advocate for the London Children's Museum in the community

About the London Children's Museum

The London Children's Museum curates powerful play experiences through immersive environments, authentic materials, and meaningful relationships. As a champion for children, we advocate for their unique perspectives, contributions, and ways of learning. Part of the community for over 45 years, the London Children's Museum provides play-based learning opportunities that support children's healthy cognitive, social, emotional, and physical development. Nine interactive exhibits, daily hands-on programs, and over 7,000 artifacts allow children to explore history and heritage, investigate science and social relationships, and celebrate art and culture. The London Children's Museum envisions a community where children's voices are honoured, play is valued, and lives are transformed by a love of learning.
